

June 3, 2009

Janet Niblock
Executive Director of OCPE
George Mason University
4400 University Drive
MSN #2G2
Fairfax, VA 22030

Dear Ms. Niblock:

Congratulations! On behalf of the Society for Human Resource Management I am pleased to recognize George Mason University for its success and incredible achievement in reaching the distinguished category of Top 20 Enrollments for the 2008 SHRM Learning System® Certification Preparation course.

SHRM and the Holmes Corporation recognized the Top 20 Institutions at the SHRM/HC Coordinators' Conference in Nashville, Tennessee on May 13-15, 2009. Certificates were presented to the twenty institutions that had the most enrollments for the 2008 SHRM Learning System course.

With nearly 300 colleges/universities and 12,000+ students participating in the SHRM Learning System course each year, it is quite an honor to reach this illustrious category. The Top 20 Institutions for 2008 include:

- | | |
|--|--------------------------------------|
| 1. Villanova University | 11. Chapman University – Orange |
| 2. Northern California HR Association – Bay Area | 12. University of Dallas |
| 3. DePaul University | 13. Kennesaw State University |
| 4. George Mason University | 14. Northern Illinois University |
| 5. Rice University | 15. Northeastern University |
| 6. Fairleigh Dickinson University | 16. University of South Florida |
| 7. Seattle Pacific University | 17. Valencia Community College |
| 8. Morgan International | 18. University of Minnesota |
| 9. Eastern Michigan University | 19. Johnson County Community College |
| 10. Pace University | 20. Regis Learning Solutions |

The Society is honored to partner with George Mason University in providing professional development opportunities to HR Professionals in your community. Your institution greatly contributes to SHRM in achieving its mission of Serving the HR Professional and Advancing the HR Profession. Again Congratulations on a job well done. With highest regards, I remain.

Very truly yours,

J. Robert Carr, SPHR
Chief Professional and Business Development Officer